RESULTS OF THE OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 2019 ACCREDITATION OF ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES IN NIGERIAN UNIVERSITIES

The National Universities Commission (NUC) has the statutory mandate to accredit academic programmes in all Nigerian Universities. Pursuant to this mandate and in consonance with the provisions of the current Government approved guidelines, initial accreditation of a new programme is held after the programme has run for two academic sessions following approval for the establishment of the programme. Thereafter, the Commission accredits the approved programmes as and when due. Consequently, the NUC organized the accreditation of academic programmes at PAMO University of Medical Sciences, Port-Harcourt, in October/November, 2019.

The results of the exercise are as follows:

BASIC MEDICAL SCIENCE

1. Anatomy	-	Full
2. Medical Laboratory Science	-	Full
3. Nursing Science	-	Full
4. Pharmacology	-	Full
5. Physiology	-	Full

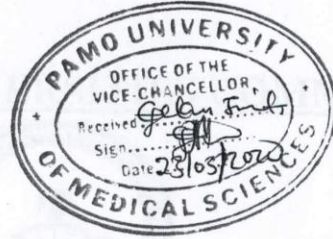

SCIENCE

1. Biochemistry	-	Full
-----------------	---	------

You are requested to please note the implications of the accreditation status earned by academic programmes of Nigerian Universities:

- Full accreditation status is valid for a period of five years;
- Interim accreditation status is valid for two years after which the programmes will be re-visited. Programmes that earn Interim status after two visits shall revert to DENIED accreditation status;

- c) Denied accreditation status has the following implications:
- i. Immediate ban on student admission into such programmes;
 - ii. Certificates issued to students admitted into such programmes after the ban on admission, will not be recognized. (Students who are currently enrolled on the programme will not be affected); and
 - iii. Such students admitted into programmes with Denied accreditation status after the ban, shall on graduation be denied call-up into the National Youth Service Corps scheme.

Attached are details of the technical reports and summary of results for the programmes visited.

Please accept the assurances of the Executive Secretary's esteemed regards.
